

FY2014 Business Plan for Japanese Association for Dental Science

Japanese Association for Dental Science (JADS) plans to conduct the businesses listed below with the aim of advancing and developing dental care by promoting science and technology related to dental science; contributing to promotion of the health and welfare of Japanese and humanity in general; and proliferating full knowledge among the members and improving the quality of dental care technology.

1. Priority plans

- (1) Establish closer cooperation with related organizations
- (2) Provide the scientific basis for dental care
- (3) Promote innovation in dental care technology
- (4) Consider how international cooperation should be
- (5) Consider how the Association's organizational structure should be
- (6) Consider how the dental specialist system should be

2. General plans

- (1) Recognize members' outstanding services
- (2) Step up public relations activities
- (3) Cooperate with Japan Dental Association in its business
- (4) Promote scientific research and implement research projects
- (5) Host academic lecture meetings
- (6) Publish the Journal of the Japanese Association for Dental Science
- (7) Publish the Japanese Dental Science Review
- (8) Review the academic terms in dentistry

3. Other

- (1) Consider gathering, compiling, and processing JADS-related materials using information technology
- (2) Subsidize the technical committee, certification committee, and other organizations
- (3) Make preparations for the 23rd academic meeting (general assembly) of the Japanese Association for Dental Science
- (4) Other businesses that should be done by the Association